

Nashville's Multi-Faith Citywide MLK Service

Sunday January 14, 2018 ~ 3:00pm

Celebrate the legacy of Dr. King with a broad-range interfaith service. Meet new people and make new friends! Worship together with a diverse crowd. Experience amazing music from a multi-faith choir along with the Caravan Church Worship Band!

Churches, clergy and lay leaders who have joined together to make this happen:

Rev. Gwendolyn Brown-Felder, Brooks Memorial United Methodist Church
Rev. Brian Fesler, Church of Scientology
Rev. Enoch Fuzz, Corinthian Missionary Baptist Church
Rev. J.J. Green, Mount Lebanon Baptist Church
Bishop Minnie Mitchell, Walking in the Spirit Fellowship
Bill Prady, Shepherd, Caravan Church
Rev. Frank Stevenson, City of Grace Church
Rev. Denise Yeargin, Unity of Music City

Service to be held at:
Church of Scientology
1130 8th Ave South
Nashville, TN 37203

All Are Welcome! Please Bring a Dish to Share Following the Service
Beautiful Music - Great Fellowship - Family-friendly - Plenty of Food

A free-will offering will be taken up and distributed to the following charities:
Hope Station - In Full Motion - Tennessee United for Human Rights

For more info: Rev. Brian Fesler, brianfesler@gmail.com